

Suffield Summer Reads 2019: A Universe of Stories

9th through 12th Grade - English 1-English 4

Immerse yourself in a universe of books this summer! This is a great time to catch up on reading and talk to your parents, guardians, and loved ones about your books.

Read as much as you can, but be sure to complete at least two books in preparation for next year.

RESOURCES & BOOK LISTS:

- ★ Connecticut Reads 2019: The Governor's Summer Reading Challenge
- ★ GoodReads, EpicReads, TeenReads
- ★ 2019 and 2020 Nutmeg Nominees
- ★ ALA 2019 Best YA Fiction Megalist

1. Read, READ, READ!
2. When you start school, your teacher will ask you to record the books you read on a summer reading Google Form.
3. You will be asked to complete a summary and a review of the book within the first week of school.

Note to parents/guardians: The texts on these lists are suggestions only. Make a family reading group and model good reading for your child.
